A Report on International Women's Day Celebrations – 2019

Women's Day was celebrated in AJIET on 30th March, 2019 by holding an event in the seminar Hall -1. The event was organised by the Women's Welfare Committee (WWC), AJIET. The programme started off by invoking God's blessings with a meaningful prayer led by Ms. Anajana, student of 4th Semester Civil. The Chairman of Women's Welfare Committee, Dr. Shantha Kumari. K. welcomed the gathering. The event was graced by Chief Guest Mrs. Malini Hasbhavi, Sub Inspector, Kavour Police Station, Mangaluru. She said that women victims of sexual harassment, dowry harassment and domestic violence have to report to the Women's desk which encourages women to speak openly and comfortably about sensitive issues. She also advised the girls to achieve higher education which is the most powerful means of empowerment. Session was presided by Principal, Dr. Shantharama Rai, who addressed the gathering and spoke on Women's Day theme "Think Equal, Build Smart, Innovate for Change". Dr. Sangeetha D M, Associate Professor, Dept. of Civil Engineering, proposed vote of thanks. Ms. Varsha Shetty, student of 6th Semester Computer Science Engineering was the Master of Ceremony.

The program was organized in the noon session between 12pm to 1pm. The Audience for the programme were the Women teaching and non-teaching staff and all female students of AJIET, Mangaluru.
