Circular

This is to inform all faculty members, students, and non-teaching staff that the college has decided to focus on water conservation. In line with our commitment to environmental stewardship and sustainable practices, we are addressing this crucial issue. As an engineering college, we have both the responsibility and the capability to lead by example in preserving our planet's valuable water resources. Therefore, we request that everyone make a conscious effort to avoid wasting water.

If you notice any leaks in faucets, toilets, or pipes, report them immediately to the maintenance office.
